INTRODUCTORY NOTE.

THE committee on the revision of the Manual, regretting the many delays they have met with in their work, would confidently bespeak the approval of the Church upon their completed labors. The work has grown upon their hands so that instead of merely a second edition of the Manual, giving only the names of present members, with the list of those who have died, a complete record may here be found of all the members of the Church from the date of its organization.

The Historical Sketch has been carried forward; the new Articles of Faith and the Covenant are given; and the Rules of Order and Discipline are as amended by vote of the Church March 16, 1893. The organization and rules of the Union Congregational Society have been added; also brief notes concerning the Sunday School, Weekly Offerings, and Societies in the Church.

There is an index of the past members; also a directory of the present members, and an Appendix with historical notes and a synopsis of the changes in the membership year by year.

By vote of the Church the expense of printing this edition of the Manual is to be paid from the legacy of $500 left to the Church by MRS. MARIA L. H. CADY, who died April 22, 1889, and mention is here made of the gift in honor of the giver.

Mention may also here be made of a legacy of $500, for the poor of the Church, by the will of Miss SARAH ANN CULVERSON, who died November 6, 1888.

The committee would gratefully acknowledge assistance rendered by Miss Anna Williams in reviewing the records and verifying the roll of the membership, and by Mr. W. E. Fiske, the secretary, in preparing the article on the Union Congregational Society.

Special thanks are also due for historical data kindly furnished by the Rev. J. G. Vose, D. D., and Professor Edwards A. Park, D D.

HISTORICAL NOTES.

THE First Congregational Church in Providence was formed in 1728, Rev. Josiah Cotton being its first minister. In the year 1741, there was a religious awakening in Providence, as well as in many other places in New England, in connection with the preaching of Gilbert Tennent. As a result of this awakening, many of the members of Mr. Cotton's Church became dissatisfied with his preaching, as being deficient in spirit and doctrine; and, in 1743, about one-half the membership, under the leadership of Joseph Snow, Jr., withdrew, and formed another Church, on the west side of the river, numbering thirty-six members. Mr. Snow was ordained as their pastor in 1747; and a house of worship was built in 1748 or 1750, on the site now occupied by the Beneficent Church, where he continued as pastor of the church until 1793.*

In 1791, Rev. James Wilson came to Providence, and was engaged by the Church as an assistant to Mr. Snow, whose advancing years led him to feel his need of such aid. The doctrinal views held and preached by Mr. Wilson were, however, very unsatisfactory to Mr. Snow and many of the Church, so that, on the 16th October, 1793, when Mr. Wilson was, by Council, installed as assistant pastor, Mr. Snow, with many of the members, claiming to be the Church,† withdrew; Mr. Snow preaching to them in his own house until another house was built, being the house now standing on the southeast corner of Richmond and Pine streets, which was dedicated Aug. 16, 1795. Here Mr. Snow continued his ministry till his death in 1803.

After Mr. Snow's death, Mr. Cornell, a Baptist minister, preached for them two years, during which time the Church became much enfeebled and scattered.

* Note A : Appendix.

In the beginning of 1807, Rev. Thomas Williams began his labors with the Church, and continued their pastor till 1816. March 31, 1808, the Church took the name of the Pacific Congregational Church.^{*} After the close of Mr. Williams' ministry, Rev. Willard Preston was settled as pastor, in 1816, and continued with them about five years. During his ministry difficulties arose in the Church, which resulted in the secession of sixteen members, who were, by the advice and assistance of a Council, formed into a Church, March 2, 1821, which took the name of the Calvinist Congregational Church. The two Churches continued separate for more than four years, struggling with difficulties and discouragements; during which time Rev. Thomas Williams was pastor of the Pacific Church about two years, and Rev. Elam C. Clarke about one year.

After many attempts at a reunion of the Churches, it was finally effected; and, on the 25th of August, 1825, the two Churches were reunited, under the name of the Union Congregational Church; and, on the 12th of December, 1826, Rev. Thomas T. Waterman was settled as their pastor. May 8, 1827, the name of the Church was changed to the Richmond Street Congregational Church, on the occasion of the occupancy of their new house of worship, on Richmond street. After ministering to the Church about ten years, during which time the Church was greatly blessed, and added to its numbers four hundred and thirty members, Mr. Waterman was obliged, on account of ill-health, to relinquish his pastorate.

In the three years succeeding Mr. Waterman's dismissal the Church had two pastors, Rev. Charles T. Torrey and Rev. Willis Lord.

Rev. Jonathan Leavitt was settled as pastor in 1840, and continued his successful and fruitful ministry until 1862, when, on account of ill-health, he was obliged to resign. During this period over four hundred members were added to the Church.

^{*} The record reads as follows :—

March 31, 1808: At a church meeting attended this day it was voted that this Church, formerly called "The Congregational Church on the west side of Providence River," shall be known and distinguished by the name of "The Pacific Congregational Church in the town of Providence."

He continued a member of the Church until his death, Oct. 7, 1877.

Oct. 13, 1851, the house of worship of the Richmond Street Church was destroyed by fire. The work of rebuilding was, however, soon commenced, and the lecture-room of the new house (on the northeast corner of Richmond and Pine streets) was occupied Dec. 5, 1852, and the house was dedicated June 1, 1853.

From 1863 to 1867 Rev. Elias H. Richardson was pastor of the Church; he resigned to accept a call to Westfield, Mass. During his ministry the Church received seventy-two members.

From the time of Mr. Richardson's dismissal, to the formation of the Union Church, the pulpit was supplied successively by Rev. W. L. Gage, Rev. Nelson Millard and Rev. S. Hopkins Emery.

The High Street Congregational Church was formed Dec. 18, 1834, with forty* members, mostly from the Richmond Street and Beneficent Churches. Their first pastor, William B. Lewis, was ordained and installed in April, 1835. Under his ministry sixty-six members were added to the Church. A call to Brooklyn, N. Y., led to his resignation, after little more than two years' service.

He was succeeded by Rev. Nathaniel S. Folsom, who held the office about one and a half years. He resigned from a disbelief in the doctrines held by the Church, and was, in consequence, cut off from its fellowship. Twenty-six years after, however, he returned to the Church, acknowledging his error, and was again received to its fellowship, his name standing as a member of the Union Church until his death, Nov. 10, 1890.

Rev Leonard S. Parker was their next pastor, being installed in 1840; but sickness and severe bereavement led to his resignation in less than three years. Nearly one hundred and fifty members were added to the Church during his short ministry.

Rev. Arthur Granger was installed in 1844, but after little more than a year of faithful service, he was called to his reward.

* By mistake, this number has been given differently elsewhere, pages 31 and 139.

The ministry of Rev. William J. Breed, from 1846 to 1852, added more than eighty members to the Church.

Rev. Samuel Wolcott's pastorate commenced in April, 1853, and lasted about six and one-half years. During this time about two hundred and fifty members were added to the Church, and it was found necessary to enlarge their house of worship. He resigned in consequence of receiving a call to Chicago, which he thought it his duty to accept.

Rev. Lyman Whiting was installed in 1859, and resigned his office in 1864; during his ministry the Church received about fifty members.

The ministry of Rev. Stephen R. Dennen commenced March 1, 1865, and under it more than one hundred members were received into the Church. He accepted a call to Woburn, Mass., and resigned his office in May, 1868.

From October, 1868, to the formation of the Union Church, the pulpit was occupied by Rev. Thomas Laurie, D. D., and Rev. Theodore T. Munger. During this period the Church dismissed eighty-eight members to the Pilgrim Church.

The proposal to unite the Richmond Street and High Street Churches arose: first, from the fact that the location of the Richmond Street edifice had become inconvenient for the majority of the congregation, and from a consequent decline of their ability to maintain public worship in that place; and, second, from the need experienced by the High Street Church of a larger and more convenient house.

Included in this plan for union, was the formation of the Church, now the Pilgrim Church on Harrison Street (which was formed, principally from members of the High Street Church, June 2, 1869), and an arrangement for the transfer of the Richmond Street edifice to the Free Evangelical Church, which had worshipped up to that time in a hired hall.

The plan of union was adopted by the Richmond Street and High Street Churches in August, 1868.*

The corner stone of the house of worship on Broad Street, erected by the two societies, was laid April 19, 1870, and the house was dedicated June 27, 1872.

On the 31st of March, 1871, the Union Congregational Church was organized in the chapel on Stewart Street, where public worship was held until the completion of the main building.

The Church, at its organization, consisted of 585 members, of which 292 were from the Richmond Street Church, and 293† from the High Street Church.

Rev. Kinsley Twining was installed as their pastor May 1, 1872, and was dismissed at his own request Nov. 19, 1875.

Rev. A. J. F. Behrends, D. D., was installed March 15, 1876; dismissed Feb. 14, 1883, to accept the pastorate of the Central Congregational Church, Brooklyn, N. Y.

Rev. J. Hall McIlvaine was installed June 20, 1883; dismissed Nov. 16, 1888, to become the pastor of the Church of the Covenant (Presbyterian), New York City.‡

After a period of nearly two years, during most of which time the pulpit was occupied by Rev. E. B. Webb, D. D., Rev. Francis A. Horton, D. D., was installed as pastor, Oct. 28, 1890.

The twentieth anniversary of the Church was celebrated April 1, 1891, with appropriate services. A report of the exercises was published by the Church.

The whole number admitted to the Church, from 1743 to 1793, was 287; from 1793 to 1825, 128. To the Union and Richmond Street Churches from 1825 to March 31, 1871, 1,005 members; to the High Street Church from 1834 to March 31, 1871, 838 members.

*Note C: Appendix.

†The number was actually 292, as the membership of one of those enrolled had ceased many years before. Therefore there were 292 from each of the two uniting churches. By mistake in the enrollment the number was differently given until now.

‡In 1884, Albert L. Kelly became pastor's assistant in developing city mission work, and by his efforts a congregation was gathered at Mount Pleasant which was organized as the Academy Avenue Congregational Church, in 1885.

There were admitted to the Union Congregational Church, from its formation to the present date, 1014 members. There have been deaths, 290; dismissions, 360; stricken off, 47.

THE CREED AND THE COVENANT.

Two forms have been successively adopted by the Church for the admission of members into its covenant :—

The first was compiled from the Articles of Faith as held by the two churches before the union—the confession or creed being in the main that used in the High Street Church; while the address and the covenant were from the manual of the Richmond Street Church.

This was adopted by the Church June 19, 1871, and has been in continuous use until this time, July, 1894.

As a matter of historical interest, and by reason of its simplicity and completeness, this form will be given in full in the appendix.*

The second form, and that now in use for the reception of members, was adopted by the church in June, 1894, and is essentially identical with that recently recommended by the committee of the National Council.

In April, 1894, the Church adopted the creed of the National Council of 1883, and by vote of the Church this is to be read in its entirety, twice a year, at the reception of members.

In adopting this in place of its former Articles of Faith it is understood, not that the Church is making any change in its doctrines, but that it is reaffirming the doctrines it has always held as representing in substance the faith of all evangelical churches. This form of the creed is also more accessible, being published year by year in the Congregationalist Handbooks, and, separately, in leaflet form.

* Note F : Appendix.

ARTICLES OF FAITH.

I. We believe in one God, the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, and of all things visible and invisible ;

And in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, who is of one substance with the Father, by whom all things were made ;

And in the Holy Spirit, the Lord and Giver of Life, who is sent from the Father and Son, and who together with the Father and Son is worshiped and glorified.

II. We believe that the Providence of God, by which he executes his eternal purposes in the government of the world, is in and over all events ; yet so that the freedom and responsibility of man are not impaired, and sin is the act of the creature alone.

III. We believe that man was made in the image of God, that he might know, love, and obey God, and enjoy him forever ; that our first parents by disobedience fell under the righteous condemnation of God ; and that all men are so alienated from God that there is no salvation from the guilt and power of sin except through God's redeeming grace.

IV. We believe that God would have all men return to him ; that to this end he has made himself known, not only through the works of nature, the course of his providence, and the consciences of men, but also through supernatural revelations made especially to a chosen people, and above all, when the fullness of time was come, through Jesus Christ his Son.

V. We believe that the Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments are the record of God's revelations of himself in the work of redemption ; that they were written by men under the special guidance of the Holy Spirit ; that they are able to make wise unto salvation ; and that they constitute the authoritative standard by which religious teaching and human conduct are to be regulated and judged.

VI. We believe that the love of God to sinful men has found its highest expression in the redemptive work of his Son ; who became man, uniting his divine nature with our human nature in one person ; who was tempted like other men, yet without sin ; who, by his humiliation, his holy obedience, his sufferings, his death on the cross, and his resurrection, became a perfect Redeemer ; whose sacrifice of himself for the sins of the world declares the righteousness of God, and is the sole and sufficient ground of forgiveness and of reconciliation with him.

VII. We believe that Jesus Christ, after he had risen from the dead, ascended into heaven, where, as the one Mediator between God and man, he carries forward his work of saving men ; that he sends the Holy Spirit to convict them of sin, and to lead them to repentance and faith ; and that those who through renewing grace turn to righteousness, and trust in Jesus Christ as their Redeemer, receive for his sake the forgiveness of their sins, and are made the children of God.

VIII. We believe that those who are thus regenerated and justified grow in sanctified character through fellowship with Christ, the indwelling of the Holy Spirit, and obedience to the truth ; that a holy life is the fruit and evidence of saving faith ; and that the believer's hope of continuance in such a life is in the preserving grace of God.

IX. We believe that Jesus Christ came to establish among men the kingdom of God, the reign of truth and love, righteousness and peace ; that to Jesus Christ, the Head of this kingdom, Christians are directly responsible in faith and conduct ; and that to him all have immediate access without mediatorial or priestly intervention.

X. We believe that the Church of Christ, invisible and spiritual, comprises all true believers, whose duty it is to associate themselves in churches, for the maintenance of worship, for the promotion of spiritual growth and fellowship, and for the conversion of men ; that these churches, under the guidance of the Holy Scriptures and in fellowship with one another, may determine — each for itself — their organization, statements of belief, and forms of worship ; may appoint and set apart their own ministers, and should coöperate in the work which Christ has committed to them for the furtherance of the Gospel throughout the world.

XI. We believe in the observance of the Lord's Day as a day of holy rest and worship ; in the ministry of the Word ; and in the two Sacraments which Christ has appointed for his Church : Baptism, to be administered to believers and their children, as the sign of cleansing from sin, of union to Christ, and of the impartation of the Holy Spirit ; and the Lord's Supper, as a symbol of his atoning death, a seal of its efficacy, and a means whereby he confirms and strengthens the spiritual union and communion of believers with himself.

XII. We believe in the ultimate prevalence of the kingdom of Christ over all the earth ; in the glorious appearing of the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ ; in the resurrection of the dead ; and in a final judgment, the issues of which are everlasting punishment and everlasting life.

FORM OF ADMISSION.

Those who are to be received being arranged in convenient order for the service, the minister will say :

Dearly beloved, called of God to be His children through Jesus Christ, we give hearty thanks to God, who, by His Spirit, has opened your eyes to see, and your Salutation. hearts to receive Jesus as Lord; and who has inclined you to present yourselves at this time to make confession of Him.

Here should be read, twice a year, in connection with this service, the Articles of Faith (page 18).

With us and with the church throughout the world you confess the common faith, saying :

I believe in the Holy Ghost ;

The holy Catholic Church ; the communion of saints ;

The forgiveness of sins ;

The resurrection of the body,

And the life everlasting. Amen.

Thus confessing with us and with all saints your Christian faith, before the Lord Jesus, and in the presence of His people, you devote yourselves to the love, obedience and service of Jesus Christ; to walk in all His ways now known, or hereafter to be made known to you, whatever it may cost you, according to your best endeavor, the Lord assisting you.

Response, I do.

Then should baptism be administered to those who have not been baptized.*

Then should those who have letters from other churches come forward, as by previous arrangement, or rise.

[The minister may greet these, saying: Beloved in the Lord, we bid you welcome who come to renew the vows before made when elsewhere you declared your faith in Christ. We greet you as kinsmen in Him, as fellow-laborers in His service and fellow-travelers to His promised rest.]

The minister, addressing all who are to enter into fellowship with the church, will say:

Beloved in the Lord, you have all been baptized into the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost, have confessed the faith of Christ before witnesses and have given yourselves to God in an everlasting covenant of grace.

The minister, laying his hand upon the head of each of those baptized in childhood, may say: By thine own choice and upon confession of thine own faith, N——, thou art set apart to the service and glory of the same Lord to whom thou wast consecrated in the baptism of childhood. Amen.

- II. Addressing those who are to be baptized, the minister will say:

You do now cordially unite yourselves with this church of Christ ; to share with us in its worship and work ; to walk with us in love and faithfulness, so long 'as your relation to us shall continue. And you promise to be accountable to this church as long as you live, unless your relation to it be regularly dissolved. This you promise and covenant to do.

Response, I do.

The members of the church will rise and the minister will say :

We, then, members of this church, receive you into our communion and welcome you with joy to our fellowship.

We promise to pray for you, to watch over you and help you so long as you shall continue with us. God

RULES OF ORDER AND DISCIPLINE.

1. A Church consists of a number of believers, who bind themselves by a public profession of the Christian Religion, and by a mutual covenant, to maintain the worship and service of God, and the ordinances and discipline of the Gospel.

2. Such a company of believers possesses all the power which the Lord Jesus Christ has given to His church, and independently of any other body is warranted in exercising in His name the authority which He has given in the Scriptures for the maintenance of its peace, order and purity.

3. The Church has a right and is competent, in and of itself, to choose and appoint its own Pastor, Deacons, and all other officers that it may deem necessary, in order to its due organization and for its spiritual improvement. It has also a right to make null and void such appointments where it is judged necessary for the the well-being of the Church.

4. The officers of this Church shall be the Pastor or Pastors; six Deacons, one to be elected each year to serve for six years, a Clerk, Treasurer, Superintendent of the Sunday-school, and three others who shall serve for one year, all of whom, except the Pastor, shall be elected at the annual meeting by ballot, and shall constitute the Standing Committee.

5. It is the office and duty of the Pastor to preside in the Church, to preach the Gospel, to administer the ordinances, and to labor publicly and privately for the spiritual welfare of all the souls that are committed to his charge; and no person ought to become a Pastor of a Church, by ordination or installation, without becoming a member of it.

6. It is the office and duty of a Deacon to perform any stated or occasional service that is assigned by the Church, and particularly to serve the Church at the administration of the Lord's Supper, and in the distribution of its charity to the needy members.

7. There shall also be four Deaconesses, one of whom shall be elected by ballot each year, at the annual meeting, to serve for four years. It shall be the duty of the Deaconess to visit wherever she can be of service, especially to the sick, the afflicted, and the destitute; to seek out Church neglectors, and to bring them to the services of the Church, and, in general, to supplement the labor of the Pastor and Deacons in their work.

8. Vacancies of any of the foregoing offices may be filled for the unexpired terms at any meeting during the year, notice having been previously given from the pulpit.

9. The annual meeting of the Church shall be held the last Tuesday in January, and regular meetings for business shall be held in connection with the Prayer Meeting on Thursday evening next preceding the last Sabbath in February, April, June, August, October, and December. Special meetings may be called by the Pastor or Standing Committee, and shall be called by them upon the written request of five members of the Church.

10. Persons desiring to unite with this Church, either on profession of faith or by letter, shall make application through the Standing Committee, who will propound such applicants as approve themselves suitable candidates for Church membership, at least one week before election. All persons uniting with this Church shall signify their assent to its Confession of Faith, Covenant, and Rules of Discipline.

11. Application for letters of dismissal and recommendation shall be made to the Pastor or any member of the Standing Committee.

12. The object of Discipline is the recovery of offending members, the removal of scandals, and the purification of the Church.

13. It is the duty of members of the Church to deal kindly with their brethren concerning minor offences, which ought not to be brought before the Church. Offences may be brought before the Church on the complaint of individual members, and in extraordinary cases, where the Church may suffer by delay, direct and summary discipline may be used. In ordinary offences the process of discipline shall be carefully conformed to the rule Christ has given—Matthew 18: 15-18,—and members charged with offences shall be held to be innocent until proved guilty.

14. Manifest violations of some moral precept found in the Scriptures, of some covenant vow, the holding and profession of opinions opposed to, or subversive of the Confession of Faith, or any part of it, the neglecting of family prayer, the devoting of any part of the Sabbath to purposes of worldly business or pleasure, the using or furnishing of intoxicating drinks as a beverage, the participating in amusements of immoral tendency, and the refusing to bear a fair part in the support of the Gospel, are grounds for Christian admonition or discipline.

15. All questions that shall come before the Church (except as otherwise provided), after having been maturely considered, shall be decided by a majority of the members present (the vote shall be taken by ballot if called for by any member of the Church), the presence of twenty-five members being required to constitute a quorum.

16. Members of the Church removing from its neighborhood will be expected to take letters of dismissal and recommendation to the Church with which they habitually worship, within one year from the time of their change of residence.

17. If a member shall be absent two years, and if the Standing Committee shall recommend that the name of the member be dropped, the name of such member or members may be stricken from the roll unless satisfactory reasons are given why such action should not be taken, and a vote may be ordered in relation thereto, at any Church meeting, after notice to this effect has been given at a Church meeting at least one week previous to the final action, and it shall be the duty of the Church to inform, by mail, members whose names are presented to the Church for such contemplated action, of the time and place of meeting. Any name so stricken from the roll may in like manner be restored.*

18. No alteration shall be made in the Confession of Faith, Covenant, or Rules of Discipline, except at a regular meeting of the Church, by a vote of three-fourths of the members present; such alteration having been proposed in writing at a meeting of the Church held at least two months previously, and publicly announced from the pulpit on the Sabbath preceding such action.

† A rule may be suspended for a single meeting provided the Church order the same by a unanimous vote.

19. In any meeting of the Church for business the rules of order in debate and parliamentary proceeding shall be in harmony with those in common use in secular assemblies, and, so far as there may be no special rules of the Church to the contrary, the Rules of Order used in Congregationalism, as given in Dexter's Handbook of Congregationalism (Chapter X), shall be the rules of this Church in its deliberative proceedings.

* At times previous to this certain names were dropped—(a) essentially under this rule; (b) for having joined other churches; (c) for having changed their religious belief.

† This provision and the following rule (19) were adopted May 19, 1894; rule 14 stands as it was in the last manual; the other rules were adopted March 16, 1893, in accordance with the recommendation of the committee on the revision of the Rules of Order and Discipline.

THE UNION CONGREGATIONAL SOCIETY.

OFFICERS, 1893-94.

The Union Congregational Society is the legal body charged with the duty of providing the necessary means for the support of the minister, the expenses of the music, and all other necessary parish charges, and of making all contracts therefor; and it has the charge and control of its prudential affairs.

It was organized* March 5, 1869, under a charter from the State, as follows:

* See Note G: Appendix, for the organization of the Society, its officers and membership to date.

CHARTER.

STATE OF RHODE ISLAND AND PROVIDENCE PLANTATIONS.

IN GENERAL ASSEMBLY, JANUARY SESSION, A. D. 1869.

AN ACT TO INCORPORATE THE UNION CONGREGATIONAL SOCIETY OF PROVIDENCE.

It is enacted by the General Assembly as follows :

SECTION 1. Israel H. Day, A. C. Barstow, Samuel S. Sprague, B. B. Knight, Daniel E. Day, Charles Dudley, John N. Mason, E. R. Barstow, Theophilus Salisbury, George W. Lewis, O. Sumner, FitzJames Rice, Wm. S. Patten, James B. Winsor, James H. Cutler, Wm. S. Merrill, E. W. Walker, E. M. Thurston, W. S. Fifield, Joseph F. Gilmore, and such others as may hereafter be associated with them, are hereby created a body corporate with perpetual succession by the name of the Union Congregational Society, for the purpose of establishing and maintaining the public worship of Almighty God in the City of Providence, and of supporting and promulgating the Christian religion according to the usages of the churches of the Evangelical Congregational denomination; with all the rights and privileges, and subject to all the duties and liabilities set forth in Chapter 125 of the Revised Statutes, and of all acts and parts of acts in amendment whereof or in addition thereto.

SEC. 2. Said society shall have power to receive and hold, transmit and convey, any real or personal estate not exceeding in value the sum of one hundred and fifty thousand dollars; to make such by-laws as are not repugnant to the Constitution and laws of this State, and to elect such officers as they may deem necessary.

SEC. 3. This act shall take effect from and after its passage.

I certify the foregoing to be a true copy.

In testimony whereof I have hereto set my hand and [SEAL.] affixed the seal of the State, this twenty-third day of January, 1869.

(Signed) JOHN R. BARTLETT,

Secretary of State.

BY-LAWS OF UNION CONGREGATIONAL SOCIETY.

(Adopted April 10, 1872.)

SECTION 1. The officers of the Union Congregational Society shall be a Treasurer, Secretary, a Standing Committee, to consist of four members, of which the Secretary shall be one, a Committee on Music, to consist of three members, and such other officers as shall from time to time be found expedient.

* SEC. 2. The annual meeting of the Society shall be held on the second Wednesday of October in each year, at which time the Secretary, Treasurer and other officers shall be elected.

SEC. 3. Special meetings shall be called by the Secretary on written request of the Standing Committee, or of five members of the Society, or may be called and notified by the Standing Committee in the absence of the Secretary.

The object of all special meetings, their time and place, shall be specified in the notices, which shall be communicated to the members at least one day previous to the meeting.

SEC. 4. It shall be the duty of the Treasurer, unless provision is otherwise made by vote, to receive all moneys for or belonging to the Society, to take charge of all its personal property, to pay bills when properly audited, to furnish a statement of the Treasury at each annual meeting, or oftener if required by the Society, and to keep an exact account, in a book specially devoted to the purpose, of all moneys received and expended by him.

SEC. 5. It shall be the duty of the Secretary to notify all meetings of the Society, by causing a notice thereof to be read from the pulpit on the Sabbath next preceding, or in default thereof, to furnish such notice to each member in person, or at his residence or place of business.

He shall keep a record of all proceedings of the Society in a book appropriated to that purpose, which shall be subject to the inspection of the members.

He shall preserve all documents and papers committed to his charge, keep a record of the members and report a list thereof at the annual meeting.

SEC. 6. It shall be the duty of the Standing Committee to take charge and control of the meeting house and chapel, to provide a

* Until Oct. 8, 1879, Section 2 was as follows: There shall be quarterly meetings of the Society on the second Wednesdays of October, January, April and July, the meeting in October to be the annual meeting, at which the Treasurer, Secretary and other officers shall be elected.

sexton and direct him in his duties, to furnish fuel and lights, to make such repairs as they shall deem necessary, not exceeding the amount of one hundred dollars at any one time. They shall also, in connection with the Treasurer, have the general superintendence and direction of the funds of the Society, and of leasing and renting the pews.

They shall audit all bills against the Society, and also the Treasurer's account previous to the annual meeting; and shall have charge of all the interests and property of the Society, which are not placed in charge of other officers or committee.

SEC. 7. It shall be the duty of the Committee on Music, to take charge of the organ, to provide an organist and chorister, and to have the general management of all matters relating to that department.

SEC. 8. New members shall be admitted after being propounded at a meeting of the Society, held at least a month previously, by a vote of two-thirds of all the members present; and all members shall give a written acceptance of their membership.

No person shall be eligible for membership except those who are either members of the Union Congregational Church, or are hirers of a pew or pews in the meeting-house, and their membership shall cease when these qualifications terminate.

SEC. 9. Seven members shall be required to constitute a quorum, but a less number may adjourn from time to time.

SEC. 10. The election of all officers of the Society provided for in the By-Laws shall be by ballot unless dispensed with by vote of two-thirds of those present; and a vote on the admission of members shall be taken by ballot when requested by any member.

SEC. 11. By-Laws may be altered or repealed at any regular meeting, after notice given at a previous regular meeting of the By-Law proposed to be altered or repealed.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL.

Nearly, if not quite, two-thirds of the members added to the church on confession of their faith, have come from the Sunday School.

The origin and history of our school are of peculiar interest.

A school was begun at the High Street Church just before the church was organized, in 1834. Of the forty-two original members of that church, twenty-four were teachers in the school, and nearly all the others were connected with it. Three, if not more, had been superintendents of schools in other churches.

The Sunday School in the Richmond Street Church was the first one organized in the city, if not the earliest in the State. It was begun by Miss Margaret S. Eddy,* as nearly as can be ascertained, in 1812 at her own house. Soon outgrowing this, it was held for some time at Miss Nichols' private school on Richmond street, and, steadily increasing, it was brought to the "Pacific" or Richmond Street Church in accordance with the vote of that church, July 7, 1818. Miss Eddy and her first assistant, Miss Rebecca Nichols, were both members of that church.

Later, probably in 1819, or possibly late in 1818, the school was removed to the vestry of the Beneficent Church, "as that was now heated by stoves" and "that it might be continued through the winter."

It was now in effect a union school with representatives from the two churches named and also from the Central Baptist. A separate school was organized in the latter church in 1827 and a school was organized anew in the Richmond Street Church June 30, 1828.

This latter date has sometimes been given as that of the birth of the school, but it is known that there was a Sunday School at the Richmond Street Church ten years earlier.†

Not to detail the further history of the Sunday School in the parent churches a list of the superintendents of each is also given in the Appendix, and it will be noted with interest that Deacon Barstow and Deacon Salisbury, who are justly honored as the founders and fathers of the Union Church, were for twenty-six and twenty years respectively superintendents of the Sunday School—the one at the High Street and the other at the Richmond Street Church; Deacon Salisbury also held the office the first year after the union.

* For this statement and many other very interesting facts in this account we are indebted to Rev. Dr. Vose of the Beneficent Church.

WEEKLY OFFERINGS,

OR SYSTEMATIC BENEVOLENCE.

At a meeting of the Church held Dec. 16, 1873, after an experimental trial for seven months, the plan of Systematic Benevolence, recommended by John McAuslan and Deacon Salisbury, was formally adopted by the Church, and it has been in continuous use ever since, with such success that it has been adopted, almost without change, by churches far and wide throughout the land.

Its essential features are (1), a pledge for a contribution to be (2) paid in weekly offerings, and (3), the total for the year to be divided according to the donor's wish.

An important item in the plan is the envelope for each week, and also the careful account kept of the weekly contributions.

At the outset much was said upon the large sums that might be raised by gathering the little contributions week by week through the year, but the greater benefit has come to the givers in their calmly considering the claims of the great charities of the Church, and then pledging themselves for an offering according to the measure of their ability.

For the first twenty years, nearly, or until December, 1892, the collection was received in the boxes at the doors of the Church, but by vote of the Church the contributions have since been taken by passing the plate at each service. It is earnestly to be desired that the new plan may not lessen the number of pledges that shall be received year by year. The great obligations that are upon us cannot be met except by planning beforehand how to do it, and this plan of pledging a weekly offering, or a set sum for the year, has proved to be both more elastic and more efficient than any hitherto devised.

Honorary Presidents: MRS. S. S. SPRAGUE, MRS. F. A. HORTON.

President: MRS. JOHN MCAUSLAN.

Vice-Presidents: MRS. MARY A. POPE, MRS. MARY J. LEWIS,
MRS. A. B. PITKIN.

Secretary: MRS. WILLIAM KNIGHT.

Treasurer: MRS. ISABEL N. OLNEY.

This Society—the “Sewing Circle” of earlier days—has been especially interested in coöperating with the Home Missionary Society, and in May last voted to become an auxiliary of the Woman’s Home Missionary Association.

Meetings are held in the parlors of the Church at 2 P. M. each Tuesday from September to May, and several boxes of clothing and other necessities are sent each season to the families of home missionaries in the West.

THE LADIES' HOME MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

President: MARY E. HOPKINS.

Vice-Presidents: ISABELLA H. ADAMS, MRS. JOSEPH C. BOMS, MRS. I. C. W. AYLSWORTH.

Secretary: JEANNETTE R. TINGLEY.

Assistant Secretary: CARRIE E. BATES.

Corresponding Secretary: ANNA WILLIAMS.

Treasurer: CARRIE L. BATES.

This Society is also an auxiliary to the Woman's Home Missionary Association, and was organized Dec. 4, 1883.

Its meetings are held on Fridays at 2 P. M., in the Church parlors.

It aims to take an active part in local charity as well as in coöperating with the older society in the support of Home Missions.

Socials are held under the auspices of these societies from time to time through the season.

All the ladies in the congregation are cordially invited to become active members of one or the other of these societies. Gentlemen also may become honorary members.

YOUNG LADIES' FOREIGN MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

President: ———.

Vice-President: EMELINE E. BUTTS.

Secretary: CARRIE C. OLNEY.

Treasurer: ISABELLA H. ADAMS.

This Society was organized about twenty years ago as an auxiliary of the Woman's Board of Missions, and is especially interested in securing contributions for the support of "our missionary"—Miss Florence E. Griswold, of the girls' school at Brousa, in Turkey. Miss Olive Twichell, now the wife of Rev. Lyndon S. Crawford, of the same mission, was our former representative there.

KNIGHTSVILLE.

The Knightsville Branch of the Union Church was organized in the summer of 1878, when, on June 16th, thirteen members were received into the Church, on confession of their faith, at a special communion service held at that place.

Since that time regular preaching services have been maintained, the church edifice has been renovated, the communion service observed from time to time, and thirty-six members have been admitted to the Church.

The Sunday School, which had been conducted there for many years, has been continued, with an enrollment now numbering 90 scholars and 10 teachers and officers; average attendance, 75.

Rev. D. C. Eggleston, pastor's assistant, has charge of the preaching service there each Sabbath, and of the prayer meeting Friday evenings. Mary J. Richardson is clerk, and George A. Field treasurer of this branch of the Church. William H. Barron, Jr., is the superintendent of the Sabbath School.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S SOCIETY OF CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR.

Soon after the organization of the Church, a young people's prayer meeting was begun, in continuation of similar meetings that had been held for many years in the High Street and Richmond Street Churches. At first held on Sabbath evenings, they were soon assigned for Tuesday evening, and that arrangement still continues.

The Society for Christian Endeavor was organized Jan. 20, 1885, to take the place of the previous meetings, which had been well sustained on the whole, though conducted in an irregular and rather informal manner. Great success has attended the new organization. Nearly all the young people in the Church have been enrolled as members, and much good work has been accomplished. The number of active members now numbers about one hundred; the number of associate members, eleven.

A Junior Endeavor Society has also been organized during the year 1893, numbering about forty members.

The Presidents of the Y. P. S. C. E., with the dates of their election, have been as follows: J. H. McIlvaine, Jan. 20, 1885; A. C. Day, March 27, 1888; J. H. McIlvaine,* Sept. 25, 1888; A. P. Williams, March 26, 1889; J. W. McAuslan, Sept. 24, 1889; A. C. Day, Sept. 23, 1890; W. K. Logee, March 31, 1891; Florence K. Wilson, Oct. 6, 1891; Rolfe M. Lyman, Sept. 27, 1892; D. C. Eggleston, March 14, 1893; A. C. Day, Sept. 26, 1893; F. A. Horton, March, 1894. The corresponding secretary is A. C. Day, 20 Whitmarsh street.

* C. W. Breed, vice-president, acted as president after Nov. 12.

CHRONOLOGICAL RECORD OF PAST AND PRESENT MEMBERS.

The following roll contains the names of all the members of the Union Congregational Church from the time it was organized. By reference to the original records the manner and date at which each joined have been ascertained and are here specified. The letter "c" after a name means that that person joined the church on confession of faith; "l," joined by letter from some other church. "R. St." and "H. St." in the first section signify Richmond Street Church, and High Street Church, respectively.

Bracketed (family) names are those which have been changed by marriage since joining the church; bracketed (Christian) names are those of the husband; a bracketed number after a name is that of a member connected with this one by marriage, and names connected by a brace are those of husband and wife.

An alphabetical index of past and present members will be given in the next section, and by it any name may be readily found.

Deaths of members of the Church, and deaths of baptized children, should be promptly reported to the clerk of the church to be properly entered upon the records. Any change of name by marriage, as well as any change of residence, should also be promptly reported. This is especially desired for those not living within the city, whose address is otherwise often not obtainable except by prolonged inquiry.

The post-office is a means of communication prompt, sure, and always available, when other may be lacking; be free to make use of it.

INDEX.

PART I.—CONTAINING AN ALPHABETICAL INDEX OF ALL PAST MEMBERS OF THE CHURCH.

PART II.—CONTAINING AN ALPHABETICAL INDEX AND A DIRECTORY OF ALL THE PRESENT MEMBERS.

The number preceding each name indicates where that name may be found in the foregoing accession list of members. Two numbers before a name indicate that that person has at two different times been a member of the church. Numbers following a name refer to a husband or wife also a member, unless otherwise indicated, when they may refer to other relations, as son or daughter, etc. Thus, the letter c. in this connection will signify that the person named is the child of the member whose number follows; b. and s. will stand for brother and sister respectively. Names bracketed together are those of husband and wife.

In these lists we have sought to group all immediate members of a family together, and this will account for the variation shown from an absolute alphabetical arrangement. The object of this, as well as the directory of the present addresses of those now members, is to help us become better acquainted with each other. [See Note I: Appendix.]

APPENDIX.

The Appendix is designed to include several interesting memoranda which could not readily be incorporated in the former part of the Manual, but which have there been referred to in the foot notes.

It is believed that they will be of permanent value for the side light they throw upon the history of the Church and the Sabbath School. Several of them, if not saved now, could not be gathered later.

As the whole book could not be in type at once, it has been necessary to refer to them by letters, as Note A; Note B; etc., rather than by the page number, but the latter may be found in the index, page 4.

NOTE A: APPENDIX.

Supplementary to Historical Notes, page 7.

The history of the Congregational Church in Providence has been recently given in a very interesting manner by Rev. J. G. Vose, D. D., of the Beneficent Church, in a series of historical discourses, which have since been published.* Reference may also be made to the history as given in Staples' "Annals of Providence."

A synopsis of the Ancient Records of the Church is as follows: "A. D. 1720. This year the first exertions for the foundation of a pædobaptist Congregational Church in the town of Providence (was) made by a small number of its inhabitants. By pecuniary assistance from people in the adjoining States and the encouragements that were afforded by several ministers, they were enabled to proceed in their important design. For several years they requested and enjoyed occasionally the assistance and labours of different ministers. Of these, Samuel Moody, of York, in the province of Maine, was the most agreeable and successful. . . . But neither he nor his people would assent to his removal from York.

"A. D. 1728. . . Oct. 25, Mr. Josiah Cotton, having accepted their invitation, was ordained, and at the same time a pædobaptist Congregational Church was regularly embodied. . . .

"A. D. 1743: September 27th, difficulties having arisen respecting the conduct of their pastor, a part of the brethren who claimed to be the Church deposed Elder Cotton from his office. Oct. 14. . . . The brethren who deposed him elected Deacon Joseph Snow to the office of ruling elder. In 1744, attempts were made to effect a reconciliation, . . . but without success. 1745, . . . (Covenant solemnly renewed.) Joseph Snow, Jun^r, was this year approved by the Church and desired to preach the Gospel.

“. . . A. D. 1746: During this year the Church kept many days of fasting and prayer for direction in their choice of a minister. Oct. 20, They made choice of Joseph Snow, Jun^r.

“A. D. 1747: Jan. 23, the Church spent the day in fasting and prayer that Joseph Snow’s duty respecting a settlement as their minister might be made plain to him. At the close of the day he gave his answer and accepted their call. . . . The Church then rejoiced, and praised God and prayed. . . . Feb. 12th. On this day, according to previous appointment, Joseph Snow, Jun^r, was ordained pastor and teacher of the Church. They who assisted in this service were Elisha Paine, Solomon Paine, Thomas Stevens, Simon Spaulding, Matthew Smith and Oliver Grant (from the churches in Canterbury, Plainfield, Mansfield, Norwich and Stonington, Conn.) Under Elder Snow’s ministry the Church was happily united and was enlarged.”

Meantime Mr. Cotton continued pastor at the first church until 1747, Elder Snow and the other separatists having been suspended from membership March 25, 1744. “In 1783, the fair character and exemplary lives of such as had been formerly suspended from Mr. Cotton’s Church in 1744, compelled that Church to take off their censure, and to restore them to full fellowship.”—(Staples.)

In October, 1785, the General Assembly granted a charter of incorporation to six of the members of (Elder Snow’s) Church, under the name of “The Beneficent Congregational Society.” In the unfortunate and very unhappy differences that arose a few years later, in 1793, as to whether Mr. Wilson should be settled as co-pastor, “it is said that while a majority of the Church members sided with their old elder, a majority of the Society took the part of Mr. Wilson, and he was accordingly ordained. Upon this Mr. Snow and his adherents withdrew themselves.”—(Staples.)

NOTE B: APPENDIX.

Supplementary to Historical Notes, page 7.

The grounds for this claim seem to have been that an ex-parte council of churches, held Oct. 14-16, 1793, had declared as follows: “. . . From attested votes and papers stating the transactions between the parties, it appears that attempts have been made, previous to the calling of this council, for a mutual council, which proved unsuccessful, through a disagreement respecting the matters to be submitted. . . . It also appears from an attested copy of a vote of that part of the Church, . . . that they determined to use no further efforts on the subject; but that Mr. Snow and the brethren with him still urged for a mutual council, and that they renewed the proposal this day, without success. . . . We are sorry to learn that the dissenting brethren . . . have invited a council for the ordination of a pastor. Should . . . (they) persevere in their present measures, it is the opinion of this council that the pastor and brethren with him may and ought to withdraw their watch and care from them, and this being done, it is the opinion of this council that the Revd Joseph Snow and the members of this Church adhering to him ought to be considered and treated as the original Congregational Church in Providence on the west side of the river. . . . Voted in council unanimously.

On the other hand, an ex-parte council called by his opponents to sustain their action in deposing Elder Snow from the pastorate and install Mr. Wilson as his successor, voted that the charges and the vote of suspension against the elder be withdrawn, and that Mr. Wilson be installed as co-pastor. Thereupon Elder Snow and those with him withdrew, leaving the Church property, not without protest, in the hands of his opponents.

No further council was held to organize either branch as a new Church. The portion under Elder Snow, accounting itself the Church, simply dropped from membership those who had enrolled themselves under a new covenant and a new constitution, and the latter continued under the pastor of their choice as “the first Congregational Church on the west side of the Salt River in Providence,” but really as a new and independent Church—for thirty years and more renewing on its anniversary the covenant made on the 19th of July, 1793, and numbering such meetings consecutively from that date as annual meetings of the Church; as it were, a new Church in the old meeting-house.

While Elder Snow may have erred in carrying his authority too far as if he were a Bishop of the Church, he and his friends for years felt that he had been wronged in the course pursued against him. Even as late as 1827 the feeling was still alive, and the Church recognized it by vote, but on July 14, 1831, in response to overtures from the Beneficent Church, "it was agreed that no difficulty existed to prevent any union of the churches which might be for the good of the churches and the glory of God. An exchange of pulpits accordingly took place on the 17th of July, and the pastor of this Church received an invitation to take part in a four days' meeting to be held by sd church on the 10th of Aug. . . ." Protracted meetings were also held that year in this Church, and many conversions (75-100) followed. "Behold how good and how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity!"

NOTE C: APPENDIX.

*Preliminary Resolutions Jointly Adopted by the Richmond Street and High Street Churches, March, 1871.

PREAMBLE.

As a union of the congregations of the Richmond Street and High Street Congregational Churches is about to be consummated by a joint occupation of the sanctuary now building, it seems desirable that this measure should be effected in such a way that neither Church will lose its identity and bring its cherished history to even an apparent close.

This is especially to be desired in the case of the Richmond Street Church, which has become venerable in its age, still retaining records that reach back to March 7, 1743, compiled and kept by the first pastor, the Rev. Joseph Snow (in which are embodied the first confession of faith and the covenant), which with those that follow indicate an unbroken history from that date till the present.

* The original plan of union, was as has been indicated, page 10. It was carried into effect according to further resolutions adopted at this later date. To our brother, the venerable Amos C. Barstow, late of the Beneficent Church, is due the honor of having conceived and elaborated in such perfection the plan for the union of the two Churches and of having contributed most munificently for carrying that plan into execution. Said his beloved friend and coadjutor, the late Deacon Salisbury, with whom he took counsel from the first—"the plan was Brother B.'s, and his gifts made it a success." But though Deacon Barstow and Deacon Salisbury may rightfully be called the fathers of the Church, the Church is a union Church and every member has had a part in its development and must contribute to its success "according to his several ability." [Amos Chafee Barstow, born in Providence, April 30, 1813; died in Providence, September 5, 1894.]

In consummating this union it is also to be remembered that the two churches stand to each other in the relation of mother and daughter, the High Street Church having received twenty-three of its thirty-eight original members from the Richmond Street Church, so that the union restores the Churches to the same relation they once occupied. In like manner, it is desirable that the briefer but vigorous and useful life of the High Street Church, dating from Dec. 21, 1834, should be perpetuated in the future history of the united Church.

It is believed that the two Churches may, by the action of each, come together in the way proposed, and that the union will not be a new Church, but the continuance of the two Churches as one Church. And it is believed that there is in Congregational usage no reason against, but, on the contrary, both reason and precedent for a union so formed, and that it is not to be considered as the cessation of the life of either body, but rather as a united and enlarged life shared in common by both.

Therefore, voted and resolved—

1. That on and after the 31st day of March, 1871 (the Richmond Street and High Street Churches concurring by the passage of this same preamble and resolution), these two Churches be merged or united in one under the name of The Union Congregational Church, this having been the name once borne by the Richmond Street Church, and that, at the time specified for this union, all the books, records, communion service, privileges and properties of every kind, except church funds, belonging to, or in any way appertaining to each, become the property, and be held for the use and benefit, of the said Union Congregational Church.

2. Resolved, That the articles of faith and covenant of each, with the rules and order of discipline as embraced in the records of each, be transferred under these joint resolutions to the Union Congregational Church, to remain and have binding force and obligation upon each and all who have respectively subscribed to them, until by the consent of each, expressed or implied, they have been superseded by articles of faith, covenant and discipline which the Union Congregational Church shall adopt for its future guidance.

3. Resolved, That the deacons, members of standing committees, treasurers, clerks, and all subordinate officers in each church hold their respective offices and discharge the appropriate duties thereof until superseded by the election of such officers in the Union Congregational Church.

NOTE E: APPENDIX.

Superintendents of the Sabbath School before the Union.

It may be of interest to note who had been superintendents of the Sabbath school, in the parent Churches previous to the union.

As has been stated, the Sunday school at the Richmond Street Church was organized in 1818, but it is uncertain who was superintendent.

From the latter part of 1818 to the summer of 1828 this Sunday school was held as a union Sunday School at the Beneficent Church. Returning to its own Church, the "Richmond Street Sunday School Society" elected as superintendents:

Jarvis E. Gladding, July 1, 1828;

John C. Cass, March 6, 1833;

John Kingsbury, Jan. 1, 1835;

David Andrews, Jan. 3, 1836; and he was re-elected by the Church March 14, 1837, when the Society abandoned its independent organization and the Church assumed the direction of the school.

Jarvis E. Gladding was elected Aug. 30, 1838;

Theophilus Salisbury, Dec. 8, 1840;

Zwinglius Grover, Dec. 12, 1849;

Theophilus Salisbury, Dec. 17, 1851;

Silas W. Plimpton, Dec. 12, 1854;

T. Salisbury and John W. Vernon, Dec. 13, 1859;

Jonathan G. Parkhurst, Dec. 11, 1860;

T. Salisbury, Dec. 15, 1863.

Deacon Salisbury held the office until a year after the Union Church was organized, or over twenty-one years in all.

Of the superintendents of the High Street Sunday school:

John C. Cass was elected Dec. —, 1834;

Amos C. Barstow, March —, 1839;

Stephen H. Tabor, June 27, 1865;

Edward S. Cheney, Jan. 9, 1866;

Amos C. Barstow, Jan. 11, 1869;

George W. Lewis, May 18, 1869.

Mr. Lewis held the office until the union of the two Churches, and was superintendent conjointly with Deacon Salisbury for the first year after the union.

Mr. Barstow had been superintendent twenty-six years consecutively.

NOTE F: APPENDIX.

Articles of Faith and Form of Admission Adopted June 19, 1871.

This form of admission was the one used by the Church until July 1, 1894. Though now replaced by another it has seemed best to transfer it intact to the appendix, as if it were laid aside like a precious heirloom that it would be a pleasure at any time to use again.

FORM OF ADMISSION.

ADDRESS.

In the presence of Almighty God, and of these witnesses, you now appear to make a profession of your religious belief, to enter into covenant with this Church, and to offer yourself a living sacrifice to the Lord Jesus Christ. By partaking of these memorials in obedience to His command, you desire to acknowledge and to commemorate His death on the cross, as the only ground of your hope of pardon, sanctification, and eternal life.

CONFESSION OF FAITH.

ARTICLE I.

You believe that there is one only living and true God: a Spirit, infinite, eternal, unchangeable, and possessing every natural and moral perfection.

ARTICLE II.

You believe that the Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments were given by inspiration of God; and are the perfect rule of our faith and practice.

ARTICLE III.

You believe that God is revealed in the Scriptures as the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost; that these three are the one God; the same in essence, and equal in every Divine perfection.

ARTICLE IV.

You believe that the purposes of God are eternal and immutable; that He created all things for His own glory; and that His providence and government are universal, wise and holy.

ARTICLE V.

You believe that man was created holy; that he fell from that state by transgression; and that, in consequence of the fall, mankind are by nature destitute of holiness, and, in all their moral actions, sinners against God.

ARTICLE VI.

You believe that Jesus Christ is both God and man; that by His sufferings and death He made an atonement for sin, sufficient for all mankind; and that through Him salvation is freely offered to all, on condition of repentance and faith.

ARTICLE VII.

You believe that all who truly repent of their sins, and believe in Christ, were chosen in Him before the foundation of the world; that they are regenerated by the special influence of the Holy Spirit; that they are justified on account of Christ's atoning sacrifice, and will be kept by the power of God, through faith, unto salvation.

ARTICLE VIII.

You believe that Christ has a visible Church in the world; that its ordinances are Baptism and the Lord's Supper; that the Christian Sabbath and the Gospel Ministry are institutions of Divine appointment; that it is the duty of Christians to unite with this visible Church, and observe its sacred ordinances; and that it is the privilege of believing parents to dedicate their children to God in Baptism.

ARTICLE IX.

You believe that there will be a general resurrection of the dead, when Jesus Christ shall judge the world in righteousness; and that the wicked shall go away into everlasting punishment, and the righteous into life eternal.

COVENANT.

(Address to Candidates for Membership.)

You do now, in the presence of the heart-searching God, and before angels and men, avouch the Lord Jehovah to be your God and portion; and you heartily receive the Lord Jesus Christ for your Redeemer and Saviour, and the Holy Spirit for your Teacher and Sanctifier. You do wholly renounce the service of Satan; and you promise to yield persevering obedience to all the Divine commandments. You engage to receive in love the pure doctrines of the Gospel, as they are taught in the Holy Scriptures; and you promise to contend earnestly for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints.

You do submit yourself to the government of Christ in His Church, and to the regular administration of His government in this Church.

You do covenant to attend the Worship of God and the ordinances of the Gospel with this Church, so long as you are a member of it, and God continues you in this place. And you promise to be accountable to this Church as long as you live, unless your relation to it be regularly dissolved.

This you promise and covenant to do.

(The Church rising in response.)

We do now receive you into our communion, and we covenant to watch over you, and to promote your spiritual edification with all fidelity and tenderness; treating you in truth and love as a member of the body of the Lord Jesus Christ, who is the head over all things to the Church, which is His body, the fullness of Him that filleth all in all.

And may the blessing of God the Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, abide with, strengthen and cheer you amid all the temptations, trials and events of your earthly pilgrimage; and, proving faithful unto death, may you be prepared to eat of the Supper of the Lamb, with all the ransomed of the Lord, and to free and sovereign grace shall be all the praise.—Amen.

NOTE G: APPENDIX.

Organization of the Union Congregational Society.

At a meeting of the charter members, March 5, 1869, Amos C. Barstow was chosen chairman; George W. Lewis, secretary.

At the request of the chairman, Deacon Theophilus Salisbury led in prayer.

On motion of William S. Patten, it was—Voted, That the Act of Incorporation . . . be accepted, and adopted as the Charter of the Union Congregational Society in Providence, and that this be the organization meeting under the same.

The chairman read Psalms c. and cxxii.

On motion, William S. Patten and George W. Lewis were appointed as a committee on by-laws, and reported later a series of rules, which were accepted and adopted. These, as amended April 10, 1872, and Oct. 8, 1879, are given on page 29.

The presiding officers of the Society have always been elected pro tempore.

Its other officers and committees have been as follows :

SECRETARIES.

NOTE H: APPENDIX.

The Sunday School and Its History.

We have recently (July, 1893,) passed without noting it the seventy-fifth anniversary of the establishment of the Sunday School in the Richmond Street (then the Pacific) Congregational Church; and, moreover, this seems to have been the first Sunday School organized in connection with any Church in the city, if not in the State.

By the favor of Rev. J. G. Vose, D. D., pastor of the Beneficent Church, we learn that Miss Margaret S. Eddy began the school in her home* about 1814. It was soon after moved to the school house of Miss Rebecca Nichols, on Richmond Street, and later developed into the Sunday School Society, a union Sunday school held in the basement of the Beneficent Church.

"Both Miss Eddy and Miss Nichols were members of the Richmond Street Church. To that Church belongs the honor, so far as can be ascertained, of being the first in the city engaged in Sabbath school work."—(Dr. Vose, Historical Discourse at Fiftieth Anniversary of Beneficent Sunday School, October, 1870.)

It was indeed held for a time in the Pacific (or Richmond Street) Church. The meagre records of that Church give only the following in connection with the beginning of the school:—

"July 7, 1818. At a monthly meeting holden at the house of Mr. Ebenezer S. Day †—

Voted, That a Sabbath school be established, to be under the direction of this Church.

"Voted, That their pastor and Mr. Park be a committee to make the necessary regulations for the same."

From the venerable and well beloved Professor Edwards A. Park, of Andover Theological Seminary, we learn that it was his father, Professor Calvin Park, then of Brown University, who with the pastor, Rev. Willard Preston, was prominent in connection with the forming of the school.

The exact date at which it was founded cannot be given, but that it was held there is attested by the following from Professor Park, probably the only member of the school now able to tell us about it:

"I think that I attended the school about the year 1818, when about

*From Mr. Isaac Battey, whose brother (Charles, 16, page 38,) attended the school there, we can locate the house as the one, 292 Eddy Street, near Ship. Except that it has been raised, it is about the same as then.

† Father of Israel H. Day, one of the charter members of the Union Church.

ten years old. The superintendent of the school I do not distinctly remember. I am inclined to think his name was Gladding.

"I remember very distinctly one of my teachers, Miss Margaret Eddy. She afterwards became the wife of Rev. John Ferguson, and her daughter (named Abigail Park Ferguson, in honor of my mother,) is quite noted as the founder of the great missionary institute (the Huguenot Seminary, at Wellington, Cape Colony,) in South Africa.*

"My Sabbath school class was taught in the gallery of the 'tin-top meeting-house,' on the left-hand side of the gallery as you pass from the front door to the pulpit.

"I have often heard Mrs. Ferguson express her interest in the 'tin-top' school as the first S. S. with which she was ever connected; and I have heard others say she was the pioneer in Sabbath school work in Rhode Island.

"Very respectfully yours,

"EDWARDS A. PARK."

It is not certain that the school was continued here more than for the single season. According to a letter from Mr. Chester Pratt to Rev. Mr. Vose, it was in 1818 removed to the vestry of the Beneficent Church, "because that was now heated by stoves."

NOTE I: APPENDIX.

Family Relationships in the Church.

It would be interesting to many if we could here indicate fully which of the members were related to each other as parents or children, brothers or sisters, etc., but time and space will not suffice, and this is not a genealogical register. It is recommended, however, that the lists be studied carefully, not only to identify individual members, but to connect them with others to whom they stand related.

* The following from a letter written by Miss Abigail Park Ferguson, since her recent return from Africa, will be of interest in this connection—"As I was the companion of my mother's old age I can perhaps tell you more about her than my sisters.

"My mother, Margaret Snow Eddy, named for the wife of Pastor Snow of Providence, began the first Sunday-school in the State. I remember seeing something about it in print when I was a child and have heard my mother speak of it a number of times.

"She began in her father's house. He was William Eddy, a ship builder. . . .

"She was born Nov. 12, 1794, and was not far from twenty when she began her Sabbath school work. She began with her nieces and nephews and the school soon increased so that they moved it to a school-house and later it was moved to the Church. . . . My sainted mother died May 6, 1871, aged 76 years."

NOTE J: APPENDIX.

The Memorial Elm.

In the spring of 1886 we were called to mourn the sudden death of Deacon Tabor, and, noting how many from the Church had already passed from among us, the superintendent of the Sabbath School proposed that a memorial tree be planted by the school, that the dead from the school and the Church might be kept in loving remembrance by those who remain.

The school heartily concurred in the plan, with the provision that the tree be a memorial not only of the dead but of all who at any time had been or should be connected with the school or the church, and by their committee selected an American elm as most appropriate for the purpose. This was duly planted by the school, with simple but impressive services. It hardly survived the summer, however, and in the autumn was replaced by another, which has lived and thrived—the vigorous tree now in the chapel yard. Though hardly as old as fifteen years when it was planted, this well may symbolize the Church and mention may rightly be made of it here, that, knowing the memories for which it stands, we all may tenderly guard it as almost a part of the sanctuary itself.

“As the days of a tree shall be the days of my people, and my chosen shall long enjoy the work of their hands; they shall not labor in vain, nor bring forth for calamity; for they are the seed of the blessed of the Lord, and their offspring with them.”

Year by year the tree will mean more and more as a memorial. Even its falling leaves, as Ruskin so beautifully says, shall leave for us the lesson of fellowship; of effacing ourselves in our work, while we reverently conserve and continue the work of the good and the true who have left us.

This note may seem to some to be of disproportionate length for a church manual, but let it not be thought out of place entirely. This is, indeed, a memorial manual—designed to help the members know and remember each other, and not to forget those who have gone. Great pains have been taken to present a complete record for each member according to the lines laid down, viz.: (a) giving in chronological sequence the date at which each joined and the manner of joining; (b) the time and manner of removal; (c) the alphabetical index of past members and the very full and complete directory of the present members.

It has been a labor of love to prepare these lists; it is hoped they also may be held in loving regard by many that read them.
